Acts Giving Rise to This Suit

37. Pursuant to Section 505 of the FDCA, Lupin Atlantis filed Lupin's ANDA seeking approval to engage in the commercial manufacture, use, offer for sale, sale, or importation into the United States of Lupin's Proposed Product before the patents-in-suit expire.

38. On information and belief, following FDA approval of Lupin's ANDA, Lupin will manufacture, use, offer to sell, or sell Lupin's Proposed Product throughout the United States, or import such generic products into the United States.

39. On information and belief, in connection with the filing of its ANDA as described above, Lupin provided a written certification to the FDA, as called for by Section 505 of the FDCA, 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(2)(A)(vii)(IV), ("Lupin's Paragraph IV Certification") alleging that the claims of the patents-in-suit are invalid, unenforceable, and/or will not be infringed by the activities described in Lupin's ANDA.

40. No earlier than October 30, 2018, Lupin sent written notice of its Paragraph IV Certification to Plaintiffs ("Lupin's Notice Letter"). Lupin's Notice Letter alleged that the claims of the patents-in-suit are invalid and/or will not be infringed by the activities described in Lupin's ANDA. Lupin's Notice Letter also informed Plaintiffs that Lupin seeks approval to engage in the commercial manufacture, use, offer for sale, sale, or importation of Lupin's Proposed Product before the patents-in-suit expire.

41. In Lupin's Notice Letter, Lupin offered to provide access to certain confidential information and materials within Lupin's ANDA pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(5)(C)(i)(III). Lupin's offer of confidential access was conditioned on terms identified in Lupin's Notice Letter.

The terms and conditions of Lupin's offer of confidential access were unreasonable and beyond those that would apply under a protective order. The restrictions Lupin has placed on access to its ANDA contravene 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(5)(C)(i)(III). The parties did not reach an agreement on the terms of such confidential access. To date, Lupin has not provided any portion of its ANDA to Plaintiffs.

42. This Complaint is being filed before expiration of the forty-five days from the date Plaintiffs received Lupin's Notice Letter.
